The HRIA report will be submitted to ACCS for review and final approval.

The HRIA was undertaken and no historic resources were identified.

ACCs determined a Historic Resources Impact Assessment (HRIA) was required.

An Archaeologist conducted a Historic Resources Overview (HRO).

Alberta Culture and Community Spirit (ACCS) for review and approval.

The HRO noted the St. Dunstan’s Indian Industrial School as one site of concern.

The HRO noted the St. Dunstan’s Industrial School as one site of concern.

They do suggest heavy use of the area in the past (Figures 2, 3 and 4).

The investigation discovered lands that contained several archaeological sites. While

All figures noted are presented on adjacent board.

HISTORIC RESOURCES