

Fatalities in Alcohol-Involved Collisions July - December

On July 1, 2012, Alberta implemented tougher sanctions for graduated drivers licence (GDL) drivers and drivers with a blood alcohol concentration (BAC) of .08. On September 1, 2012 tougher sanctions were also implemented for drivers with a BAC of .05.

*Includes alcohol-involved fatalities from July through December

Over the 5 year average fatalities (July – December)